We are pleased to announce that our annual 'Summer Concert' will take place on Monday 16th July. The staff and students within the Creative and Performing Arts department have been working tirelessly to ensure that it will be an evening not to be missed. Tickets will go on sale from Monday 9th July. On the evening the doors will open at 5.45pm and the concert will start promptly at 6.00pm. Please note there will be no access into the hall once the concert has started, so please arrive early not to be disappointed.

Tickets can be purchased through the academy's cashless system or by students paying cash at the finance office. Please remind your child that the finance office will be selling tickets at set times during the day – before school 8.40am-8.50am, at break 10.50am-11.10am and at lunch 1.30pm-1.50pm.
