

Tuesday, 6th February 2018

Dear Parent,

FLASH Marking Trial 2018-2020

The English Faculty at Tarleton Academy has applied to take part in a national research and development trial run by Durham University in conjunction with the Education Endowment Foundation and Meols Cop High School.

The trial will begin in September 2018 and continue for the duration of your son / daughters English Language and Literature GCSE. Please read the attached letter that describes what the trial involves and how it could benefit your son / daughter.

The trial will involve us sharing anonymised student data with the researchers at Durham University, if you do not wish us to share your son / daughters anonymised data please complete the form and return to the general office by Tuesday 20th February. If you are happy for us to share the anonymised data you do not need to return the form.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school on 01772 812644 or at: c.barlow@tarletonacademy.org

Yours faithfully

Mrs C Barlow (Head of English)

Outstanding education at the heart of the community